SINCE THEN BRITAIN'S PROBLEMS HAVE DETERIORATED FURTHER

The Commander of a besieged garrison who will not capitulate, yet who will not allow his troops to

Inevitable Soviet-devised tactical victory. This threat should be nailed to the bed of every student,

Detente then is Soviet Russia's secret weapon - the deadly nerve-gas of self-induced surrender in

- but to actually embrace every nation-wrecking idea that Communists put forward.

has seen all governments during the past 20 years, not only unwilling to seal this country's borders, and the master weapon is in the hands of the Soviets, for in this type of psychological and religious sidekicks, Carrington and Soames, who performed this act of sickening racial treachery - with royal

It was no International Conspiracy outside Parliament which destroyed Britain's aircraft industry and the 1940 to the domestic impotence of 1980, reason would be hard to isolate the work of the Hidden Hand: Yet, within every range of the national spectrum, and to combat the onslaught of conditioned decadence. It is

National Party formed. It had one cardinal and basic aim to which all other aims, policies, purposes and paid for their existence and none shall pay for their sins" - that destructive combination of Marxist politic and is called common sense. By the year 1951 common sense was in decline which allowed the many arising

Man has five senses physiologically described, yet there is a sixth sense, ostensibly in rather short supply; it

THE MEANING OF AN ENEMY

This second address by Andrew Fountaine was made on 15th November 1980 at the National Party's AGM.

Last that we shall once again be living not as slaves, but as free men and women in our country with our security of our people in the future..... it means a hard, tough struggle against heavy odds, but it means at artificial divisions of today and appeal directly to the nation as a whole. National unity is the key to National doubts and anxieties. Something new is needed, all are agreed, but the new party must rise above the

the clamour of the parties, the actions of isolated enthusiasts come to nothing in a world of confusion, the best inventors, designers, engineers and craftsmen.

Our country is capable of great things - we have an immense industrial capacity, we still have a large empire and Co for the mess we are in.

who are brave enough and determined enough to win through. Clearly, the only salvation for our country lies interests and truckling to the Americans. They began by destroying two hundred years of endeavour in India

The Lend-Lease agreement was likewise no generosity, for it contained a clause designed to cripple our

British people he would have us believe. This man was determined not merely to defeat the common weakened, we are crowded on to an island which just cannot produce enough food for us. On the one side properly.

which of course, guaranteed the security and prosperity of these islands, if only we cared to develop them have actually done.

The Commander of a besieged garrison who will not capitulate, yet who will not allow his troops to

inevitable Soviet-devised tactical victory. This threat should be nailed to the bed of every student,

Detente then is Soviet Russia's secret weapon - the deadly nerve-gas of self-induced surrender in

- but to actually embrace every nation-wrecking idea that Communists put forward.

has seen all governments during the past 20 years, not only unwilling to seal this country's borders,

and the master weapon is in the hands of the Soviets, for in this type of psychological and religious

sidekicks, Carrington and Soames, who performed this act of sickening racial treachery - with royal

It was no International Conspiracy outside Parliament which destroyed Britain's aircraft industry and the

1940 to the domestic impotence of 1980, reason would be hard to isolate the work of the Hidden Hand: Yet,

within every range of the national spectrum, and to combat the onslaught of conditioned decadence. It is

National Party formed. It had one cardinal and basic aim to which all other aims, policies, purposes and

paid for their existence and none shall pay for their sins” - that destructive combination of Marxist politic and is called common sense. By the year 1951 common sense was in decline which allowed the many arising

Man has five senses physiologically described, yet there is a sixth sense, ostensibly in rather short supply; it

THE MEANING OF AN ENEMY

This second address by Andrew Fountaine was made on 15th November 1980 at the National Party's AGM.

Last that we shall once again be living not as slaves, but as free men and women in our country with our security of our people in the future..... it means a hard, tough struggle against heavy odds, but it means at artificial divisions of today and appeal directly to the nation as a whole. National unity is the key to National doubts and anxieties. Something new is needed, all are agreed, but the new party must rise above the

the clamour of the parties, the actions of isolated enthusiasts come to nothing in a world of confusion,

the best inventors, designers, engineers and craftsmen.

Our country is capable of great things - we have an immense industrial capacity, we still have a large empire

and Co for the mess we are in.

who are brave enough and determined enough to win through. Clearly, the only salvation for our country lies interests and truckling to the Americans. They began by destroying two hundred years of endeavour in India

The Lend-Lease agreement was likewise no generosity, for it contained a clause designed to cripple our

British people he would have us believe. This man was determined not merely to defeat the common weakened, we are crowded on to an island which just cannot produce enough food for us. On the one side properly.